

k-love encourages me in my everyday life by keeping me focused on important issues. they keep my spirits high. the community would be better off listening to uplifting and encouraging music rather than what is out there now. it is in the public interest to keep k-love on and not go to the lpfm format.